METHODISTS PICK NEW PASTORS SOON

CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD AT CAMERON NEXT MONTH.

LOCAL CHURCH SHOWS UP WELL REPORT SAYS

The Rev. G. S. Cox Recorded Tri-ump of First Church Yesterday.—Dr. W. B. Christy to Go.

A general review of the work of the First Methodist church here for the church year now drawing to a close, was made by the Rev. G. S. Cox, pastor in connection with his sermon at the services yesterday morning. In this resume, Mr. Cox declared that the church has received approximately 100 new members the last year and financially and otherwise has prospered.

Mr. Cox also paid tribute to the leading workers of the church, Sunday school and their auxiliaries. The every-member-cavass, also was made by the leading workers of the church yesterday, to get affairs straightened up prior to the beginning of the new church year next month.

Expect Several Changes Locally. The church year is marked by the annual conference, which this year, will be held at Cameron, beginning October 1 and continuing for a week. About 300 ministers are expected to attend. Bishop W. O. Shepherd of Kansas City, will preside. The Missouri Conference, which includes all churches in Nodaway county, likewise comprises all Methodist Episcopal churches and organizations north of the Missouri river. The conference last year was held here.

That there will be several changes in the M. E. churches of Nodaway county at the close of the conference, is fully known. It is almost certain that Mr. Cox, local pastor, will be promoted to another church, while Dr. W. B. Christy of Maryville, superintendent of the Maryville district, will also be transferred, as he has served the maximum of six years as superintendent.

Middleton Retires. The Rev. Thomas Middleton, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Burlington Junction, also will be succeeded, as he has already placed his resignation from the ministry. One important matter is to be taken up at the conference—the election of delegates to the general conference of the Methodist of the world next May. This is a quadrennial meeting lasting a month, and is the most important assemblage of the church. The general conference will be held at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Dr. Christy is being mentioned as one of the delegates. Another matter of deep interest to the conference which may have consideration will be the possible revival of the movement for the consolidation of the two Methodist conferences of the state—the Missouri and the St. Louis. The Missouri river divides the state into these two Methodist territories.

GUARDSMEN BREAK UP CAMP

Company F and Band Members Return From Annual Encampment.—Are Lauded.

The forty members of Company F and the twenty members of the Fourth Regiment band, here, both of the National Guards of Missouri, returned to Maryville last night and today from Kansas City where they have been attending annual encampment of the Fourth Regiment the last eight days. While the guardsmen were prevented from doing their best work the fore part of the encampment on account of the rainy weather, much drill and rifle practice was received the last four days.

That the Fourth Regiment showed up well is attested by a statement given out by General Harvey Clark, commanding officer of the Missouri guard. He said that the Fourth Regiment had made the best showing this year of any Missouri military organization. That went for infantry, artillery, signal corps and medical corps, too, he said.

"The Fourth has shown the best in camp sanitation, in military courtesy, personnel of the men, efficiency of the officers and qualifications for marksmanship," General Clark said.

The Fourth Regiment made a better showing in marksmanship than did the Third Regiment. That was unexpected as the companies are scattered in several North Missouri towns and have not the advantage of a rifle range like that at Swope Park.

The personnel of Company F at the encampment was: Captain John K. Ross; first sergeant, Claude Wilson; mess and quartermaster sergeant, Ross Deets; sergeants, Arch Colden, Charles Wilson, Ralph Clayton and Veyne Hanna; corporals, Charles Cornell, Robert Bramble, James McMahon; musician, Francis Keegin, artificer, Jean Bratcher; privates James Bridges, Roland Criss, Bliss Clark, William Cross, William Claypool, Allen Clark, Virgil Clowser, George M. Crowson, McElree Clover, Bert Davis, Ray Edmondson, Rolla Fleming, Bert Griffith, Howard Humphrey, Harley Hitchcock, Ora Kissinger, Joseph McNeal, Ora Moxing, David Pfeiffer, Fred Curry, Bryan Richey, Lawrence Rife, Charles Still and Jesse Wray.

The two mascots were Donald Deets and "Bud" Hughes.

The Fourth Missouri has played an important and honorable part in the war history of the country. Its service extends back over twenty-five years, during which time it has maintained an enlisted strength satisfactory to the War department. It saw service during the Spanish American war, answering the call of President McKinley for volunteers with a muster roll of forty-three officers and 1,326 men.

BALL TOURNEY ENDS IN FUSS

Clearmont Match Results in Hopkins Refusing to Play Maitland's "Make Up." Promoters Lose.

The Clearmont baseball tournament ended Saturday afternoon, in a controversy and with the Clearmont promoters holding an almost empty sack. The lack of large audiences on any of the three days and necessity of offering $250 in prizes left the promoters at a loss.

The controversy came up Saturday afternoon, after Pickering had defeated Clearmont by a score of 4 to 0. Hopkins due to play Maitland, refused to do so, because Maitland had engaged five players who had been with Clearmont. Hopkins, due to get first money of $125, was allowed $112½, while Pickering got second, Clearmont third and Maitland fourth.

The next baseball tournament will be held at Bedford, Ia., this week.

Farmers Getting Less Now.

FEDS ARE VICTORS

END CONTEST WITH STANBERRY BY 3 TO 0 DEFEAT.

EACH PLAYED AIR-TIGHT

Locals and Visitors Erred but Little.—Hits Were Scarce.—Red Sox Had One Good Chance.

The Maryville Federals defeated the Stanberry Red Sox on the Federal's diamond, here yesterday afternoon, by the score of 3 to 0, before an audience of about 1,000 spectators.

This game is the fifth one played this season between these two teams and in games won, Maryville has three to its credit, thereby proving herself conqueror of the famed Red Sox. It is reported that this game marked the close of the season here. It was reported here yesterday by members of the Stanberry team that they would probably close the season at Stanberry next Sunday by a game with the St. Joseph "Drummers."

A special train was run from Stanberry yesterday afternoon over the Wabash bringing a "bunch of fans" estimated at about 275.

The line-up of the teams was considerably changed as was announced prior to the game. "Nig" Perrine, formerly of the St. Louis Cardinals, and other minor league teams, Tal Clark of the Texas and Western leagues, but now retired by "age," Horan of the Central league, Richardson, of the Western league and Norton, a pitcher just from an eastern league, decorated the roster of the Federal team, while the names of "famed ones" playing with the Red Sox, Brittain, of an Iowa league, Hoffman, a pitcher from the Lincoln Western league and Withrow formerly of the St. Louis Cardinals and St. Joseph Western league but now of an eastern league.

As baseball games go there was "something doing" till the last man was out. However, Stanberry never gave the Federals much to worry about only in the third when with one down Walker hit one down the right field foul line that looked almost as good as a foul but when Walker was forced to quit running the scorers gave him credit with a three-base hit. His team mates were unable to push him across for a tally.

In the sixth the fans were given a bit of baseball that was intensely interesting while it lasted for Mr. Cowl after two down hit one to Scott which should have been an out but Cowl is a fast man on foot work and Scott was playing with the ball trying to get it to lay quiet for a moment but the pesky thing would not so Cowl was safe. Then while the Federal battery was passing the ball back and forth Mr. Cowl was measuring the distance to second safely, then Summa planted one in left and Woodard returned the ball to Richardson to head off Cowl but somehow he forgot to leave second until the ball was in the diamond and then Richardson threw to Scott and Scott to Perrine who tagged out Cowl. That was about the best they could do in the way of entertainment.

For Maryville Perrine planted one in right for three bases in the first but was unable to score. In the fifth the Federals put the game on "ice," although they threatened to score in the fourth. To start the fifth Scott struck out and Woodard walked. Woodard and Norton were safe on Norton's blow which bounced off Walker's glove. Then while Morse was being retired pitcher to first, the runners advanced a base. A single by Perrine put two runs across for Maryville. In the sixth a hit on balls to Horan and a two-base hit by Tillson produced another score. Scott ended the inning by striking out.

Norton struck out 9 and issued no passes but hit one man, while Hoffman struck out six and issued two bases on balls.

The lineup for Stanberry: Walker, 3b; Lynch, rf; Cowl, ss; Summa, cf; Hinkley, 1b; Brittain, 2b; Withrow, c; Kyger, lf; Hoffman, p.

For the Federals: Morse, rf; Perrine, 3b; Richardson, c; Horan, cf; Clark, ss; Tillson, 1b; Scott, 2b; Woodard, lf; Norton, p.

The score: R. H. E. Stanberry .000000000-0 5 2 Maryville .00002100x-3 5 1 Umpire, Lange of Clearmont. Time 1:45.

Halifax, Sept. 13.—It is believed that the rescue ships are standing by the French steamer, the Sant' Anna and that the fire is now under control.

Halifax, Sept. 13.—An endless stream of wireless calls has been sent early today for assistance for the French steamer, Sant' Anna, reported afire at sea. All available help possible is being rushed to the scene.

It is believed the fire was incendiary as the ship was delayed one day at New York, while the cargo of the ship was being searched for possible bombs aboard.

New York, Sept. 13.—The fate of the Sant' Anna is still unknown. Agents here have received no word from the vessel. Efforts to get in wireless communication have been unsuccessful.

The steamer carried seven first cabin passengers, forty-four second cabin passengers and 1,703 steerage and a crew of 175. The steerage passengers were Italian reservists.

The Sant' Anna is owned by the Fabre Line. Captain Pay is in command. She is bound from New York to Mediterranean ports.

Besides the Italian reservists the ship also carries a large cargo of merchandise.

The Sant' Anna carried no munitions of war or inflammable material of any kind. Her cargo consisted chiefly of foodstuffs.

GERMANY AND U. S. MAY REPAIR RIFT

CRISIS BETWEEN TEUTONS AND AMERICA MAY YET BE AVERTED

WILL RECALL VON PAPEN IF LANSING WISHES IT

Military Attache, Would Go Home.—May Settle Arabic Question by Arbitration.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Secretary of State Lansing and German Ambassador Von Bernstorff are in perfect accord over the Arabic case. The United States is willing to arbitrate the question. The Germans are to accept liability for the deaths of the two Americans aboard the ship, while Von Bernstorff reiterated the assurance that Germany has accepted the American principal regarding the submarine war fare.

The arbitration would be solely to determine whether the submarine commander was justified in sinking the Arabic. Lansing is not yet determined what this government wants to do to entirely close the Arabic case.

Washington, Sept. 13.—It has become known at the German embassy that Captain Von Papen, military attache at the German embassy will be sent home if Secretary of State Lansing desires it. Von Papen is anxious to join the German army in the field, it is said.

Von Papen is accused of also having sent letters home, via James J. Archibald, which did not reflect well to the United States.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Secretary of State Lansing visited President Wilson this morning for a conference.

German Ambassador Von Bernstorff later conferred with Lansing for a half hour. All refused to make a statement but Von Bernstorff said things are not at a deadlock and that the severance of diplomatic relations between the United States and the Teutonic countries may be averted.

Would Patch Up Difference.

Washington, Sept. 13.—German Ambassador Von Bernstorff will confer with Secretary of State Lansing again today. It is learned that he will insist that the question, whether the steamer Arabic was a hostile one, shall be submitted to an arbitration.

Germany will submit to such a move, it is believed.

When it was announced by Von Bernstorff that Germany hoped England would instruct its ship commanders not to try to sink submarines, it is claimed now Great Britain previously had instructed commanders of all merchantment and liners to ram all German submarines possible.

Germany is now trying to get the United States government to force England to make this concession, it is learned.

Miss Helen Burris left yesterday for Bolckow, Mo., where she will begin her second year's work at the Caywood school.

Announcement.

We are authorized to announce Robert I. Young of Buchanan county, as a Democratic candidate for Congress from the Fourth district subject to the primary election to be held August 8, 1916.

You can slide into debt but you will have to climb out.

A grouch describes a married man as a "bachelor who has proposed once too often."

Dr. Dumba has done more than most diplomats. He is leaving us with something to remember him by.

Several of the Balkan states are ready to enter the war as soon as they can decide which side they are on.

Every man should try to make good. Those who can't make good, can make a noise which generally passes for the same thing.

With Von Tirpitz on a vacation, maybe the German diplomats and naval directors can get together and decide what Germany's real policy is in reference to submarines.

Hon. Chas. G. Revelle, who has been selected by Gov. Major to succeed Judge John G. Brown of the supreme bench, will be the youngest supreme judge in the United States. He is a native Missourian and only thirty-seven years old.

Uncle Joe Cannon, whom the whole country knows, says "We are at peace with the entire world and the most efficient way to maintain that peace is for us to stand solidly behind our President. It is worth more than $1,000,000 to show the foreign nations that while we are divided politically, we stand as one man when the honor of the nation is at stake."

By what authority does this new man Villmoare question the right of such good citizens as Doctor Postlewaite, George B. Baker, Smith Penney and E. M. Lindsay to sit as members of the state hospital board No 2? Looks as though he has some special idea of his own importance—and a green member at that!—St. Joseph Observer.

Dr. Jacob Geiger, the St. Joseph surgeon, is being groomed by St. Joseph Republicans as a candidate for congress. They are looking for some one who can remove the substantial Democratic majority that has grown up in this district since Charley Booher has been representing it. Dr. Geiger's success, however, in removing unusual growths has come through the use of the knife and knives will be barred in the congressional campaign.

ROAD BUILDING

GREAT BENEFIT TO FARMERS

Three-Hour Trip to Town Cut Down to Thirty Minutes by Advent of Gasoline Motor Car.

(By L. J. OLLIER.)

The prosperity of a state depends largely upon good roads. They mean cheaper transportation, better living conditions, and happier homes. Quick communication ranks as the great factor in the universal dissemination of knowledge. Where good roads abound sectionalism cannot exist.

The desire for good roads leading to a city that those with automobiles could have a greater pleasurable touring radius first brought the matter prominently to the fore as a good roads movement with automobile backing.

Gradually the farmer, antagonistic at first, began to take an interest. With good roads and an automobile he could cut down the three hour trip to town to perhaps thirty minutes.

Good roads brought the doctor quickly—at a time when minutes were precious. Good roads and an automobile took the family to town in the evening, something unheard of before, or to visit a friend or relative in a distant part of the county. When farmers learned that other farmers were doing these things, that good roads and automobiles made them possible, then they, too, desired good roads for their own county.

By means of the telephone and quick motor truck delivery the farmer is now able to top the market. He can rush his produce to market at the right moment to command the best price. But he could not do it were his roads not well built and in good repair. Consequently the farmer is now most active in the agitation for good roads and jealous of any legislative power delegated to irresponsible authorities.

While in time every road should be a good road, yet all the work cannot be done at once. Therefore the authorities who are building roads should see that each one is linked to another to make continuous highways. The advantage of this lies in the fact that the main arteries of travel will then first receive the attention of the good roads builders. It will also facilitate touring, in itself a valuable asset for any community.

It is interesting to note that in 1913 Ohio had the largest mileage of improved roads of any state in the Union with 28,312 miles. Indiana was second and New York third. Illinois was seventh with 9,000 miles. While New York can claim the greatest progress in road building from 1909 to 1913, having built nearly 19,000 miles in that time, I feel that the work California is now doing probably puts that state in the lead. I have just returned from California and am amazed at the

Three years ago California appropriated $18,000,000 for good roads. The various counties each appropriated in addition from $250,000 to $2,500,000 for the improvement of county roads which are feeders to the main highways. Los Angeles county has over 400 miles of improved roads. By September one will be able to drive from Los Angeles to San Francisco by the coast route and return by the valley route over continuous good roads—a boulevard 1,000 miles in length.

The same agitation that brought California its appropriation for good roads is now being waged elsewhere throughout the West. In some places actual work is in progress. The state of Utah has passed favorably upon an improved road that eventually will be part of one all the way from the Yellowstone National park to the Grand canyon of the Colorado river in Arizona.

In the East New York is working out its good roads plan and I am interested in the efforts Illinois is making to improve its roads.

DAIRY

FEEDING SILAGE IN SUMMER

Practice Found to Be Cheaper Than Turning Cows Into Pasture—Make-Up of Dairy Cow.

Dean Mumford of the Missouri College of Agriculture makes the statement that cows can be maintained more cheaply on silage than they can be carried through the summer on blue-grass pasture, where the land costs about one hundred dollars per acre and is suitable for growing corn.

He says that there is very little pasture land where a cow and a calf can be pastured on less than one and one-half acres, but it is entirely possible to get twelve and one-half to twenty tons of silage from one acre. A cow and her calf can be carried through the summer on two pounds of clover hay and thirty-five pounds of silage per day as well or better than on blue-grass pasture. Thus he declares that you can carry a cow and her calf six months on less than a half acre of silage.

The good dairy cow has a broad forehead, indicating intelligence and a kindly disposition. She has a short, thin neck, not at all beefy, in which veins are plainly manifest. She is narrow through the front shoulders and thick-chested, indicating good lung capacity.

She has a large, well-rounded stomach, showing capacity for storage of food and water, from which milk is to be manufactured. She has broad hips and a good width through the flanks, giving plenty of room for lacteal organs. There is also a gentle incline from her shoulders to her rump. The udder is large and soft, hanging down well between her hind legs and extending forward and backward in a well-balanced proportion. Her legs are short and her hair is a glossy color.

DIFFERENT COW-FEED RULES

No Two Cows With Big Records Ever Received Same Rations—Proper Balance Is Most Desired.

(By WALTER B. LEUTZ.)

To a great extent each cow is a law unto herself so far as the most desirable grain for her to receive is concerned, and it is as difficult to give instructions for feeding a cow for high production as it is to give exact instructions for driving a two-minute race horse.

So far as we know no two cows that have made large records and have been developed by different men ever received the same ration, and we doubt if any two developed by the same man have ever received exactly the same feed. The success of a feeder depends upon his ability to maintain a proper balance between the feeds that are rich in carbohydrates and those that are rich in protein. Other conditions also have to have very careful attention, so it is absolutely impossible to lay down any fixed rules for feeding.

The secret of success is to a large extent the ability to see trouble before you are into it, and thus be able to avoid bad results. Good horse-sense and love for the work count for more than anything else.

METHOD FOR COOLING CREAM

Task Should Be Performed at Once After Separation—Good Plan to Place Can in Cold Water.

(By PROF. C. LARSEN.)

Cool the cream at once after separation. This can be done by placing the cream can in a tank of fresh, cold water. A good plan is to have the water used for stock run through this milk cooler before it reaches the general stock water tank. This method cools the cream during all seasons, and in addition it prevents freezing during the winter. Do not put the can cover on tightly. A loose cover allows the animal odor to pass off, and at the same time prevents the dust from getting into the cream.

Never allow freshly skimmed warm cream to be mixed with the previously skimmed cold cream until the former has been well cooled. The warm cream causes the germs to develop, and they sour and spoil the cream.

Keep Milk in Proper Place.

Do not leave the open pails standing around the cow stable while you milk the next cow. Take the milk where it will be free from contamination.

DAIRY

RAISING CALVES FOR DAIRY

Food and General Management Should Be Such as Will Give Full Development in All Parts.

If owners of dairy stock would always remember that the calf of the present is to be the cow of the future, the treatment would be different in the majority of cases. The food and general management should be such as will give full development to all parts. They need good care during the cold season and should be housed during rain or cold, biting winds, whatever lessens their comfort or warmth lessens vitality also, and that means loss in growth.

The calf that is reared for a place in the dairy herd should possess all necessary qualifications for such an important place. Its grandams on both sides should have a good record at pail or churn. Examine udders at suitable age and note any malformations; occasionally there will be found three or sometimes five teats, an undesirable number; sometimes there will be a double teat, which will prove a troublesome feature. It will be better to discard all such.

Handle the calves gently, groom daily and they soon become accustomed to it. Much of the nervousness which we see in the young cow can be done away with if calves are given proper treatment. Teach them to lead from the very first. We all know how annoying it is to try to lead a mature animal that has not been "broke to it" when young. The timidity of the young heifer with her first calf is nearly always due to training and not temperament. Do not allow calves to be teased—it will spoil the finest disposition. Neither allow blows.

Growing calves should have such food as insures growth. Fat is not needed in the dairy calf. The food in winter should be clover hay, oats and bran; bright straw may be fed also and roots for variety. Keep the calves comfortable—growth will follow as a natural consequence.

REGULAR HOURS FOR FEEDING

After First Week Give Calves Little Dry Grain—Feed Skim Milk Four to Six Months.

(By R. G. WEATHERSTONE.)

Feed at regular hours and after the first week give a little dry grain, after they have drank the milk.

Give them all the clean, cool water they will drink.

Sprinkle a little salt on a board where they can lick it.

Give a little bright, clean hay. As they become accustomed to it increase to what they will eat up clean.

Increase the grain gradually until it reaches a pound a day. Shelled corn, whole oats, bran, shorts, wheat are all good; but preferable in the order named.

Always feed the grain dry in the box after taking away the milk pail. Leave them in the stanchions 30 to 40 minutes after feeding.

Handle them frequently. Avoid frightening them.

If they go on good pasture at six or seven months of age gradually shut off the grain.

Feed the skim milk four to six months.

For forage, alfalfa, red clover, pea and oat hay mixed with meadow hay, fodder corn, ensilage are all good. The first four are the best.

Change of Feed.

Don't chop off in a day from dry feed to green pasture. The milk cow treated in this way is sure to show a material decrease in her milk flow. The work horse taken from good hay and given grass as his main roughness won't stand up under it. Feed them what they want until they quit of their own accord. Even then the best results won't always follow.

Roots for Dairy Cows.

On every dairy farm there is a place for a root crop. These crops furnish a variety for the cows that are on test and they help to make the cow's appetite more vigorous.

SAYS IT IS NOT DANGEROUS.

Professor of Preventive Medicine at the University of Missouri, Thinks Toothbrush Not Unsanitary.

In a few years from now will people talk about the old-fashioned toothbrush as they do now about the old-fashioned public drinking cup? Recent attacks on the toothbrush would tend to show that it is really as unsanitary as the traditional railroad station toilet towel. Doctors have advocated the disuse of the toothbrush and the use of floss silk.

Doctor M. P. Ravenel, professor of bacteriology and preventive medicine at the University of Missouri, scoffs at the theory that the toothbrush is dangerous.

"The use of floss silk between the teeth after each meal is most useful in the preservation of the teeth and in the hygiene of the mouth," said Doctor Ravenel. "It may also be admitted that toothbrushes which are partly worn and are dirty can be a source of infection. There is no doubt that every toothbrush after being put in use contains germs, and that it is practically impossible to sterilize these brushes daily. The germs on the toothbrush, however, are derived from the mouth, and foreign germs are not introduced. There is no evidence that the germs on the toothbrush multiply at all. The toothbrush, then, is merely putting back into the mouth part of the germs which it originally obtained from the decaying roots of the teeth or badly kept mouths.

The Concern With 'Nothing to Advertise'

Every business house, no matter how small it may be or how commonplace its product, has certain qualities and characteristics which are unlike those of any other concern. It has certain standards of business practice, certain policies of dealing with its customers, certain deals which give it individuality and standing in the trade. Even if its product is apparently not a whit different from the product of a dozen other concerns—like pig-iron or sheet steel or construction brick, for example—yet there is SOMETHING that leads customers to prefer to deal there, rather than elsewhere.—Printers' Ink.

The Democrat-Forum advertising offers you the opportunity of going after customers day after day. Others are taking advantage of this opportunity.

LUNCH BY LADIES OF MOUNT AYR CHURCH

Guilford News.

W. T. Whiteford of Oklahoma City, is visiting in Guilford with relatives. Mr. Whiteford formerly was a resident of Barnard and a member of the county court of this county.

Lewis C. Todd returned a few days ago from a few months visit in Eldorado and Excelsior Springs.

Rev. O. E. Lockhart, the new pastor of the M. E. church, South, is moving to Guilford this week. His family consists of his wife and two daughters, Misses Lillian and Lela Lockhart. They will live in the J. M. Hildebrand property.

R. J. Aery, living eight miles southeast of Guilford, will have a sale Tuesday. Carl Wray is the clerk.

Miss Edith Wohlford, teacher of the Hickory Hill school, near Ravenwood, was home Saturday and Sunday visiting her parents.

The Latter Day Saints had an ice cream social in the Swinford building Saturday afternoon and evening and netted a nice sum.

Robert Todd, a pioneer citizen of Washington township, is suffering from blood poisoning. He is very cheerful and is glad to see his friends. Another old soldier and citizen of Guilford, John Q. Davis, is suffering from the same malady.

A great deal of road work is being done in Washington township to get the roads in a passable condition.

The corn on the upland is in a very good condition, there being a great deal of it and the quality being fine. The farmers will probably have no surplus but enough to feed their stock.

The Matland base ball team defeated the Skidmore team by a score of 4 to 0 in a game played at Skidmore yesterday afternoon.

TAME HENS LAY MOST EGGS

Poultry Keeper Must Be on Good Terms With Members of His Flock—Make Friends With Chicks.

When a man says his hens don't lay or pay, or both, a little observation will usually disclose the fact that his hens are too shy and nervous to stay on the nest long enough to lay an egg. Have you ever watched the successful poultry keeper, the one who is making poultry keeping pay, how his fowls run after him whenever he has occasion to enter the poultry yard? The best results cannot be obtained from hens that are wild and shy. The poultry keeper must be on good terms with his hens or his hens won't lay as they should. A hen that is so wild that she will fly off the nest or roost whenever anyone enters the poultry house cannot be a good layer. She is in a continual nervous state for fear someone will come within sight of her and hasn't time to think of laying eggs.

But there is another disadvantage beside the one that directly affects your pocketbook in having "wild" fowls. It isn't conducive to good temper to have your fowls start cackling and crowing every time you happen to get near them, nor is it very convenient when you have to chase a long-legged cockerel all over the place every time wife wants a chicken for dinner. Viewed from any angle the tame hen is by far the more desirable. It isn't hard to tame chickens. On the contrary, it is the easiest thing imaginable. It is simply a matter of being friendly whenever you are around the fowls, instead of throwing stones at them every time they get near you. But the fowls are by far the easiest to tame when young. Start making friends with your chicks this summer and your next hens will be tame ones.

RHODE ISLAND RED IS IDEAL

Hens Are Extra Good Mothers, Protecting Young as Few Fowls Do—Eggs Are in Demand.

I consider the Rhode Island Red as the farmer's ideal fowl, says a writer in Agriculturist. Its heavy covering of feathers helps to keep it warm so its food can be utilized more favorably for egg production. Its plump yellow body is as free as that of a white fowl from disfiguring dark pin feathers, always a disadvantage in marketing. The hens are extra good mothers, protecting their young as but few fowls do. The chickens grow fast and get to laying as soon as any other of the American breeds. They lay beautiful large brown eggs.

I have shipped eggs to a small city for the past two years and the grocery man says they sell better than any eggs he handles. I have raised poultry for 25 years and have kept Leghorns, Brahmas, Cochins, White Wyandottes, White Plymouth Rock fowls and crosses of these breeds and most of the time have had the Barred Plymouth Rock. It has always been a stand-by and still is a favorite. From my two pens of two-year-old Barred Plymouth Rock fowls during the past winter, I had an average of half as many eggs as hens, but the Rhode Island Red fowls did better than that.

Assist the 'Little Chicks.'

This hot weather, if the chicks hatching in the incubator are among the last coming out and have already pipped and partly broken the shell about their head, you had better help them farther out at this point, as a chick dies quickly at this stage of hatching. To shut up the incubator and leave it another hour may mean a chick that is lifeless and past coming out next time you look.

Success and Failure.

Some people fail with chickens because they are easily discouraged. Others succeed for the simple reason that they keep hard at work, cleaning up, fighting vermin, mending as much as possible. One must be persevering to succeed with poultry.

TO HOLD SPECIAL ELECTION

Monday, Sept. 27, Conception Will Vote on Proposition for Electric Lighting System.

A special election has been called for Monday, September 27, at Conception Junction to vote upon a proposition to grant a twenty-year franchise for a street lighting contract, the contract to be for a term of ten years.

The contract is proposed by W. T. Costello, who will build the plant, put it in operation and give a part-day service for the first year, increasing to a full service after that time.

A proposal was also made by the Electric Light and Power Company to furnish lights for the town which would start with a full service from the time of its installation and would also furnish lights for the farmers along the intervening route between the two towns. This proposition met with much favor.

The subject of electric lights has been before the town board and the people of Conception for the past six months and it is probable the matter will be pushed to a decision within a few weeks.

COURTS GIRL; SLIPS; CLOTHES ALL A MUSS.

It is a known fact that Harold Seelman, city water clerk, is well enamored with a Burlington Junction girl, and the proof of this was brought out rather forcibly and painfully to him last night.

All intent at gazing into the love-lit eyes of the fair one, he completely forgot that the Wabash doesn't run midnight trains through Burlington Junction. And not until No. 14 whistled for the Junction station last night was he aware of the time.

Hastily donning his hat he fled for the depot several blocks distant. Just as Charley Chaplin would have it, there was a nasty mud hole on the route, and just as Charley likes it, Seelman struck it a glancing blow—that is with the "English" on the reverse side of his person. A torn trouser leg and a bruised knee added to the forlorn look of the wooer.

But for another Maryville young man being on the train all Maryville would have been in ignorance of the fate of the enamored young man.

METHODISTS PICK NEW PASTORS SOON

CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD AT CAMERON NEXT MONTH.

LOCAL CHURCH SHOWS UP WELL REPORT SAYS

The Rev. G. S. Cox Recorded Tri-umps of First Church Yesterday.—Dr. W. B. Christy to Go.

A general review of the work of the First Methodist church here for the church year now drawing to a close, was made by the Rev. G. S. Cox, pastor in connection with his sermon at the services yesterday morning. In this resume, Mr. Cox declared that the church has received approximately 100 new members the last year and financially and otherwise has prospered.

Mr. Cox also paid tribute to the leading workers of the church, Sunday school and their auxiliaries. The every-member-cavass, also was made by the leading workers of the church yesterday, to get affairs straightened up prior to the beginning of the new church year next month.

Expect Several Changes Locally.

The church year is marked by the annual conference, which this year, will be held at Cameron, beginning October 7 and continuing for a week. About 200 ministers are expected to attend. Bishop W. O. Shepherd of Kansas City, will preside. The Missouri Conference, which includes all churches in Nodaway county, likewise comprises all Methodist Episcopal churches and organizations north of the Missouri river. The conference last year was held here.

That there will be several changes in the M. E. churches of Nodaway county at the close of the conference, is fully known. It is almost certain that Mr. Cox, local pastor, will be promoted to another church, while Dr. W. B. Christy of Maryville, superintendent of the Maryville district, will also be transferred, as he has served the maximum of six years as superintendent.

Middleton Retires.

The Rev. Thomas Middleton, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Burlington Junction, also will be succeeded, as he has already placed his resignation from the ministry.

One important matter is to be taken up at the conference—the election of delegates to the general conference of the Methodist of the world next May. This is a quadrennial meeting lasting a month, and is the most important assemblage of the church. The general conference will be held at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Dr. Christy is being mentioned as one of the delegates.

Another matter of deep interest to the conference which may have consideration will be the possible revival of the movement for the consolidation of the two Methodist conferences of the state—the Missouri and the St. Louis. The Missouri river divides the state into these two Methodist territories.

EPWORTHIAN'S ELECT OFFICERS.

I. B. Williams Again Heads Buchanan Street Methodist League.

GUARDSMEN BREAK UP CAMP

Company F and Band Members Return From Annual Encampment.—Are Landed.

The forty members of Company F and the twenty members of the Fourth Regiment band here, both of the National Guards of Missouri, returned to Maryville last night and today from Kansas City where they have been attending annual encampment of the Fourth Regiment the last eight days. While the guardsmen were prevented from doing their best work the fore part of the encampment on account of the rainy weather, much drill and rifle practice was received the last four days.

That the Fourth Regiment showed up well is attested by a statement given out by General Harvey Clark, commanding officer of the Missouri guard. He said that the Fourth Regiment had made the best showing this year of any Missouri military organization. That went for infantry, artillery, signal corps and medical corps, too, he said.

"The Fourth has shown the best in camp sanitation, in military courtesy, personnel of the men, efficiency of the officers and qualifications for marksmanship," General Clark said.

The Fourth Regiment made a better showing in marksmanship than did the Third Regiment. That was unexpected as the companies are scattered in several North Missouri towns and have not the advantage of a rifle range like that at Swope Park.

The personnel of Company F at the encampment was: Captain John K. Ross; first sergeant, Claude Wilson; mess and quartermaster sergeant, Ross Deets; sergeants, Arch Golden, Charles Wilson, Ralph Clayton and Veyne Hanna; corporals, Charles Corneil, Robert Bramble, James McMahon; musician, Francis Keegin, artificer, Jean Bratcher; privates James Bridges, Roland Criss, Bliss Clark, William Cross, William Claypool, Allen Clark, Virgil Clowser, George M. Crowson, McElree Clover, Bert Davis, Ray Edmondson, Rolla Fleming, Bert Griffith, Howard Humphrey, Harley Hitchcock, Ora Kissinger, Joseph McNeal, Ora Mozingo, David Pfeiffer, Fred Cury, Bryan Richey, Lawrence Rile, Charles Still and Jesse Wray.

The two mascots were Donald Deets and "Bud" Hughes.

The Fourth Missouri has played an important and honorable part in the war history of the country. Its service extends back over twenty-five years, during which time it has maintained an enlisted strength satisfactory to the War department. It saw service during the Spanish American war, answering the call of President McKinley for volunteers with a muster roll of forty-three officers and 1,326 men.

BALL TOURNEY ENDS IN FUSS

The Clearmont baseball tournament ended Saturday afternoon, in a controversy and with the Clearmont promoters holding an almost empty sack. The lack of large audiences on any of the three days and necessity of offering $350 in prizes left the promoters at a loss.

The controversy came up Saturday afternoon, after Pickering had defeated Clearmont by a score of 4 to 0. Hopkins due to play Maitland, refused to do so, because Maitland had engaged five players who had been with Clearmont. Hopkins, due to get first money of $125, was allowed $112½, while Pickering got second, Clearmont third and Maitland fourth.

The next baseball tournament will be held at Bedford, Ia. this week.

FEDS ARE VICTORS

END CONTEST WITH STANBERRY BY 3 TO 0 DEFEAT.

EACH PLAYED AIR-TIGHT

Locals and Visitors Erred but Little.—Hits Were Scarce.—Red Sox Had One Good Chance.

The Maryville Federals defeated the Stanberry Red Sox on the Federal's diamond, here yesterday afternoon, by the score of 3 to 0, before an audience of about 1,000 spectators.

This game is the fifth one played this season between these two teams and in games won, Maryville has three to its credit, thereby proving herself conqueror of the famed Red Sox. It is reported that this game marked the close of the season here. It was reported here yesterday by members of the Stanberry team that they would probably close the season at Stanberry next Sunday by a game with the St. Joseph "Drummers."

A special train was run from Stanberry yesterday afternoon over the Wabash bringing a "bunch of fans" estimated at about 275.

The line-up of the teams was considerably changed as was announced prior to the game. "Nig" Perrine, formerly of the St. Louis Cardinals, and other minor league teams, Tal Clark of the Texas and Western leagues, but now retired by "age," Horan of the Central league, Richardson, of the Western league and Norton, a pitcher just from an eastern league, decorated the roster of the Federal team, while the names of "famed ones" playing with the Red Sox, Brittain, of an Iowa league, Hoffman, a pitcher from the Lincoln Western league and Withrow formerly of the St. Louis Cardinals and St. Joseph Western league but now of an eastern league.

As baseball games go there was "something doing" till the last man was out. However, Stanberry never gave the Federals much to worry about only in the third when with one down Walker hit one down the right field foul line that looked almost as good as a foul but when Walker was forced to quit running the scorers gave him credit with a three-base hit. His team mates were unable to push him across for a tally.

In the sixth the fans were given a bit of baseball that was intensely interesting while it lasted for Mr. Cowl after two down hit one to Scott which should have been an out but Cowl is a fast man on foot work and Scott was playing with the ball trying to get it to lay quiet for a moment but the pesky thing would not so Cowl was safe. Then while the Federal battery was passing the ball back and forth Mr. Cowl was measuring the distance to second safely, then Summa planted one in left and Woodard returned the ball to Richardson to head off Cowl but somehow he forgot to leave second until the ball was in the diamond and then Richardson threw to Scott and Scott to Perrine who tagged out Cowl. That was about the best they could do in the way of entertainment.

For Maryville Perrine planted one in right for three bases in the first but was unable to score. In the fifth the Federals put the game on "ice," although they threatened to score in the fourth. To start the fifth Scott struck out and Woodard walked. Woodard and Norton were safe on Norton's blow which bounced off Walker's glove. Then while Morse was being retired pitcher to first, the runners advanced a base. A single by Perrine put two runs across for Maryville. In the sixth a base on balls to Horan and a two-base hit by Tilson produced another score. Scott ended the inning by striking out.

Norton struck out 9 and issued no passes but hit one man, while Hoffman struck out six and issued two bases on balls.

The lineup for Stanberry: Walker, 3b; Lynch, rf; Cowl, ss; Summa, cf; Hinkle, 1b; Brittain, 2b; Withrow, c; Kyger, lf; Hoffman, p.

For the Federals: Morse, rf; Perrine, 3b; Richardson, c; Horan, cf; Clark, ss; Tilson, 1b; Scott, 2b; Woodard, lf; Norton, p.

The score: R. H. E. Stanberry .0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 5 2 Maryville .0 0 0 0 2 1 0 0 x—3 5 1 Umpire, Lange of Clearmont. Time 1:45.

Ray Cook of this city, driving a Buick car and Delbert Vert of Wilcox driving a Ford machine, collided about eight o'clock last night at the corner of First and Buchanan streets, resulting in both cars being slightly damaged.

The collision occurred just as the people who had been attending the vesper service at St. Patrick's church were leaving and caused considerable commotion among the crowd.

Vessel Deferred Departure to Satisfy Safety.—Blaze Is at Last Controlled.—Many to Rescue.

Special to The Democrat-Forum. New York, Sept. 13.—A wireless from the French steamer, the Sant' Anna, reports that the fire has been extinguished and that the vessel is now proceeding for the Azores.

Halifax, Sept. 13.—It is believed that the rescue ships are standing by the French steamer, the Sant' Anna and that the fire is now under control.

Halifax, Sept. 13.—An endless stream of wireless calls has been sent early today for assistance for the French steamer, Sant' Anna, reported afire at sea. All available help possible is being rushed to the scene.

It is believed the fire was incendiary as the ship was delayed one day at New York, while the cargo of the ship was being searched for possible bombs aboard.

New York, Sept. 13.—The fate of the Sant' Anna is still unknown. Agents here have received no word from the vessel. Efforts to get in wireless communication have been unsuccessful.

The steamer carried seven first cabin passengers, forty-four second cabin passengers and 1,703 steerage and a crew of 175. The steerage passengers were Italian reservists.

The Sant' Anna is owned by the Fabre Line. Captain Pay is in command. She is bound from New York to Mediterranean ports.

Besides the Italian reservists the ship also carries a large cargo of merchandise.

The Sant' Anna carried no munitions of war or inflammable material of any kind. Her cargo consisted chiefly of foodstuffs.

The twin screw steamship Sant' Anna is the largest French steamship in the Mediterranean service. It is of 14,000 tons and 10,000 horse-power.

Indications are that Villa is fast losing his hold in northern Mexico.

DEFER HYDE TRIAL AGAIN.

Famous Kansas City Criminal Case Goes Over for Indefinite Continuance.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 13.—The trial of Dr. Hyde, charged with the murder of Colonel Swope, which was to have begun today has been continued until Wednesday, to allow the prosecutor time to file a request for an indefinite continuance because many witnesses for the state are beyond the court's jurisdiction.

BEGIN PERMANENT BRIDGE WORK

County Finishes Repair of Flood Damages and Turns to Construction.

Work on the steel bridge to span the Nodaway river near Burlington Junction also is to be begun today by the Illinois Steel Bridge Co., which was given that construction contract at $2,470.

GERMANY AND U. S. MAY REPAIR RIFT

WILL RECALL VON PAPEN IF LANSING WISHES IT

Military Attache, Would Go Home.—May Settle Arabic Question by Arbitration.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Secretary of State Lansing and German Ambassador von Bernstorff are in perfect accord over the Arabic case. The United States is willing to arbitrate the question. The Germans are to accept liability for the deaths of the two Americans aboard the ship, while von Bernstorff reiterated the assurance that Germany has accepted the American principal regarding the submarine war fare.

The arbitration would be solely to determine whether the submarine commander was justified in sinking the Arabic. Lansing is not yet determined what this government wants to do to entirely close the Arabic case.

Washington, Sept. 13.—It has become known at the German embassy that Captain von Papen, military attache at the German embassy will be sent home if Secretary of State Lansing desires it. Von Papen is anxious to join the German army in the field, it is said.

Von Papen is accused of also having sent letters home, via James J. Archibald, which did not reflect well to the United States.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Secretary of State Lansing visited President Wilson this morning for a conference.

German Ambassador von Bernstorff later conferred with Lansing for a half hour. All refused to make a statement but von Bernstorff said things are not at a deadlock and that the severance of diplomatic relations between the United States and the Teutonic countries may be averted.

Would Patch Up Difference.

Washington, Sept. 13.—German Ambassador von Bernstorff will confer with Secretary of State Lansing again today. It is learned that he will insist that the question, whether the steamer Arabic was a hostile one, shall be submitted to an arbitration.

Germany will submit to such a move, it is believed.

When it was announced by von Bernstorff that Germany hoped England would instruct its ship commanders not to try to sink submarines, it is claimed now Great Britain previously had instructed commanders of all merchantment and liners to ram all German submarines possible.

Germany is now trying to get the United States government to force England to make this concession, it is learned.

Miss Helen Burris left yesterday for Boileau, Mo., where she will begin her second year's work at the Caywood school.

Announcement.

We are authorized to announce Robert I. Young of Buchanan county, as a Democratic candidate for Congress from the Fourth district subject to the primary election to be held August 8, 1916.

You can slide into debt but you will have to climb out.

A grouch describes a married man as a "bachelor who has proposed once too often."

Dr. Dumba has done more than most diplomats. He is leaving us with something to remember him by.

Several of the Balkan states are ready to enter the war as soon as they can decide which side they are on.

Every man should try to make good. Those who can't make good, can make a noise which generally passes for the same thing.

With Von Tirpitz on a vacation, maybe the German diplomats and naval directors can get together and decide what Germany's real policy is in reference to submarines.

Hon. Chas. G. Revelle, who has been selected by Gov. Major to succeed Judge John G. Brown of the supreme bench, will be the youngest supreme judge in the United States. He is a native Missourian and only thirty-seven years old.

Uncle Joe Cannon, whom the whole country knows, says "We are at peace with the entire world and the most efficient way to maintain that peace is for us to stand solidly behind our President. It is worth more than $1,000,000 to show the foreign nations that while we are divided politically, we stand as one man when the honor of the nation is at stake."

By what authority does this new man Villmoare question the right of such good citizens as Doctor Postlewaite, George B. Baker, Smith Penney and E. M. Lindsay to sit as members of the state hospital board No 2? Looks as though he has some special idea of his own importance—and a green member at that!—St. Joseph Observer.

Dr. Jacob Geiger, the St. Joseph surgeon, is being groomed by St. Joseph Republicans as a candidate for congress. They are looking for some one who can remove the substantial Democratic majority that has grown up in this district since Charley Booher has been representing it. Dr. Geiger's success, however, in removing unusual growths has come through the use of the knife and knives will be barred in the congressional campaign.

ROAD BUILDING

GREAT BENEFIT TO FARMERS

Three-Hour Trip to Town Cut Down to Thirty Minutes by Advent of Gasoline Motor Car.

(By L. J. OLLIER.)

The prosperity of a state depends largely upon good roads. They mean cheaper transportation, better living conditions, and happier homes. Quick communication ranks as the great factor in the universal dissemination of knowledge. Where good roads abound sectionalism cannot exist.

The desire for good roads leading to a city that those with automobiles could have a greater pleasurable touring radius first brought the matter prominently to the fore as a good roads movement with automobile backing.

Gradually the farmer, antagonistic at first, began to take an interest. With good roads and an automobile he could cut down the three hour trip to town to perhaps thirty minutes.

Good roads brought the doctor quickly—at a time when minutes were precious. Good roads and an automobile took the family to town in the evening, something unheard of before, or to visit a friend or relative in a distant part of the county. When farmers learned that other farmers were doing these things, that good roads and automobiles made them possible, then they, too, desired good roads for their own county.

By means of the telephone and quick motor truck delivery the farmer is now able to top the market. He can rush his produce to market at the right moment to command the best price. But he could not do it were his roads not well built and in good repair. Consequently the farmer is now most active in the agitation for good roads and jealous of any legislative power delegated to irresponsible authorities.

While in time every road should be a good road, yet all the work cannot be done at once. Therefore the authorities who are building roads should see that each one is linked to another to make continuous highways. The advantage of this lies in the fact that the main arteries of travel will then first receive the attention of the good roads builders. It will also facilitate touring, in itself a valuable asset for any community.

It is interesting to note that in 1913 Ohio had the largest mileage of improved roads of any state in the Union with 28,312 miles. Indiana was second and New York third. Illinois was seventh with 9,000 miles. While New York can claim the greatest progress in road building from 1909 to 1913, having built nearly 19,000 miles in that time, I feel that the work California is now doing probably puts that state in the lead. I have just returned from California and am amazed at the wonderful way in which this state is taking hold of good roads work. Three years ago California appropriated $18,000,000 for good roads. The various counties each appropriated in addition from $250,000 to $2,500,000 for the improvement of county roads which are feeders to the main highways. Los Angeles county has over 400 miles of improved roads. By September one will be able to drive from Los Angeles to San Francisco by the coast route and return by the valley route over continuous good roads—a boulevard 1,000 miles in length.

The same agitation that brought California its appropriation for good roads is now being waged elsewhere throughout the West. In some places actual work is in progress. The state of Utah has passed favorably upon an improved road that eventually will be part of one all the way from the Yellowstone National park to the Grand canyon of the Colorado river in Arizona.

In the East New York is working out its good roads plan and I am interested in the efforts Illinois is making to improve its roads.

DAIRY DAIRY

RAISING CALVES FOR DAIRY

Food and General Management Should Be Such as Will Give Full Development in All Parts.

FEEDING SILAGE IN SUMMER

Practice Found to Be Cheaper Than Turning Cows Into Pasture—Make-Up of Dairy Cow.

Dean Mumford of the Missouri College of Agriculture makes the statement that cows can be maintained more cheaply on silage than they can be carried through the summer on bluegrass pasture, where the land costs about one hundred dollars per acre and is suitable for growing corn. He says that there is very little pasture land where a cow and a calf can be pastured on less than one and one-half acres, but it is entirely possible to get twelve and one-half to twenty tons of silage from one acre. A cow and her calf can be carried through the summer on two pounds of clover hay and thirty-five pounds of silage per day as well or better than on bluegrass pasture. Thus he declares that you can carry a cow and her calf six months on less than a half acre of silage.

The good dairy cow has a broad forehead, indicating intelligence and a kindly disposition. She has a short, thin neck, not at all beefy, in which veins are plainly manifest. She is narrow through the front shoulders and thick-chested, indicating good lung capacity.

She has a large, well-rounded stomach, showing capacity for storage of food and water, from which milk is to be manufactured. She has broad hips and a good width through the flanks, giving plenty of room for lactation organs. There is also a gentle incline from her shoulders to her rump. The udder is large and soft, hanging down well between her hind legs and extending forward and backward in a well-balanced proportion. Her legs are short and her hair is a glossy color.

DIFFERENT COW-FEED RULES

To a great extent each cow is a law unto herself so far as the most desirable grain for her to receive is concerned, and it is as difficult to give instructions for feeding a cow for high production as it is to give exact instructions for driving a two-minute race horse.

So far as we know no two cows that have made large records and have been developed by different men ever received the same ration, and we doubt if any two developed by the same man have ever received exactly the same feed. The success of a feeder depends upon his ability to maintain a proper balance between the feeds that are rich in carbohydrates and those that are rich in protein. Other conditions also have to have very careful attention, so it is absolutely impossible to lay down any fixed rules for feeding.

The secret of success is to a large extent the ability to see trouble before you are into it, and thus be able to avoid bad results. Good horse-sense and love for the work count for more than anything else.

METHOD FOR COOLING CREAM

(By PROF. C. LARSEN.)

Cool the cream at once after separation. This can be done by placing the cream can in a tank of fresh, cold water. A good plan is to have the water used for stock run through this milk cooler before it reaches the general stock water tank. This method cools the cream during all seasons, and in addition it prevents freezing during the winter. Do not put the can cover on tightly. A loose cover allows the animal odor to pass off, and at the same time prevents the dust from getting into the cream.

Never allow freshly skimmed warm cream to be mixed with the previously skimmed cold cream until the former has been well cooled. The warm cream causes the germs to develop, and they sour and spoil the cream.

Keep Milk in Proper Place.

Do not leave the open pails standing around the cow stable while you milk the next cow. Take the milk where it will be free from contamination.

Famous Tennessee Shorthorn Cow.

teased—it will spoil the finest disposition. Neither allow blows.

Growing calves should have such food as insures growth. Fat is not needed in the dairy calf. The food in winter should be clover hay, oats and bran; bright straw may be fed also and roots for variety. Keep the calves comfortable—growth will follow as a natural consequence.

REGULAR HOURS FOR FEEDING

After First Week Give Calves Little Dry Grain—Feed Skim Milk Four to Six Months.

(By R. G. WEATHERSTONE.)

Feed at regular hours and after the first week give a little dry grain, after they have drunk the milk.

Give them all the clean, cool water they will drink.

Sprinkle a little salt on a board where they can lick it.

Give a little bright, clean hay. As they become accustomed to it increase to what they will eat up clean.

Increase the grain gradually until it reaches a pound a day. Shelled corn, whole oats, bran, shorts, wheat are all good; but preferable in the order named.

Always feed the grain dry in the box after taking away the milk pail. Leave them in the stanchions 30 to 40 minutes after feeding.

Handle them frequently. Avoid frightening them.

If they go on good pasture at six or seven months of age gradually shut off the grain.

Feed the skim milk four to six months.

For forage, alfalfa, red clover, pea and oat hay mixed with meadow hay, fodder corn, ensilage are all good. The first four are the best.

Change of Feed.

Don't chop off in a day from dry feed to green pasture. The milk cow treated in this way is sure to show a material decrease in her milk flow. The work horse taken from good hay and given grass as his main roughness won't stand up under it. Feed them what they want until they quit of their own accord. Even then the best results won't always follow.

Roots for Dairy Cows.

On every dairy farm there is a place for a root crop. These crops furnish a variety for the cows that are on test and they help to make the cow's appetite more vigorous.

They intend to put on another exhibition there next Saturday night, when it is expected, the victor will be decided. Several Maryville sports enthusiasts intend to witness the wrestling bout.

SAYS IT IS NOT DANGEROUS.

Professor of Preventive Medicine at the University of Missouri, Thinks Toothbrush Not Unsanitary.

In a few years from now will people talk about the old-fashioned toothbrush as they do now about the old-fashioned public drinking cup? Recent attacks on the toothbrush would tend to show that it is really as unsanitary as the traditional railroad station roller towel. Doctors have advocated the disuse of the toothbrush and the use of floss silk.

Doctor M. P. Ravenel, professor of bacteriology and preventive medicine at the University of Missouri, scoffs at the theory that the toothbrush is dangerous.

"The use of floss silk between the teeth after each meal is most useful in the preservation of the teeth and in the hygiene of the mouth," said Doctor Ravenel. "It may also be admitted that toothbrushes which are partly worn and are dirty can be a source of infection. There is no doubt that every toothbrush after being put in use contains germs, and that it is practically impossible to sterilize these brushes daily. The germs on the toothbrush, however, are derived from the mouth, and foreign germs are not introduced. There is no evidence that the germs on the toothbrush multiply at all. The toothbrush, then, is merely putting back into the mouth part of the germs which it originally obtained from the decaying roots of the teeth or badly kept mouths.

"Even with these facts in view it is clear that the toothbrush is a cleansing agent and its disuse would result in serious injury. There seems to be no reason for the alarm which some writers have spread. The toothbrush should be carefully washed after use and put in a dry, clean place. It is also a good thing for each person to have several toothbrushes, never using the same one twice in succession, but allowing twenty-four hours to elapse between the use of the same brush. The brush should be kept free from dust, and in a place where there is plenty of pure air.

The Concern With 'Nothing to Advertise'

Every business house, no matter how small it may be or how commonplace its product, has certain qualities and characteristics which are unlike those of any other concern. It has certain standards of business practice, certain policies of dealing with its customers, certain ideals which give it individuality and standing in the trade. Even if its product is apparently not a whit different from the product of a dozen other concerns—like pig-iron or sheet steel or construction brick, for example—yet there is SOMETHING that leads customers to prefer to deal there, rather than elsewhere.—Printers' Ink.

Guilford News.

W. T. Whiteford of Oklahoma City, is visiting in Guilford with relatives. Mr. Whiteford formerly was a resident of Barnard and a member of the county court of this county.

Lewis C. Todd returned a few days ago from a few months visit in Eldorado and Excelsior Springs.

Rev. O. E. Lockhart, the new pastor of the M. E. church, South, is moving to Guilford this week. His family consists of his wife and two daughters, Misses Lillian and Lela Lockhart. They will live in the J. M. Hildebrand property.

R. J. Aery, living eight miles south-east of Guilford, will have a sale Tuesday. Carl Wray is the clerk.

Miss Edith Wohlford, teacher of the Hickory Hill school, near Ravenwood, was home Saturday and Sunday visiting her parents.

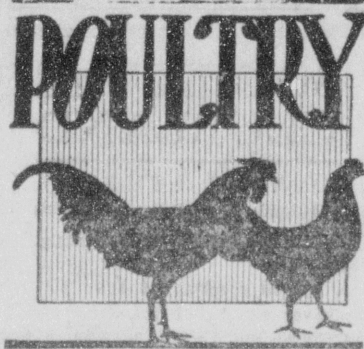

The Latter Day Saints had an ice cream social in the Swinford building Saturday afternoon and evening and netted a nice sum.

Robert Todd, a pioneer citizen of Washington township, is suffering from blood poisoning. He is very cheerful and is glad to see his friends. Another old soldier and citizen of Guilford, John Q. Davis, is suffering from the same malady.

A great deal of road work is being done in Washington township to get the roads in a passable condition.

The corn on the upland is in a very good condition, there being a great deal of it and the quality being fine. The farmers will probably have no surplus but enough to feed their stock.

The Maitland base ball team defeated the Skidmore team by a score of 4 to 0 in a game played at Skidmore yesterday afternoon.

POULTRY

TAME HENS LAY MOST EGGS

When a man says his hens don't lay or pay, or both, a little observation will usually disclose the fact that his hens are too shy and nervous to stay on the nest long enough to lay an egg. Have you ever watched the successful poultry keeper, the one who is making poultry keeping pay, how his fowls run after him whenever he has occasion to enter the poultry yard? The best results cannot be obtained from hens that are wild and shy. The poultry keeper must be on good terms with his hens or his hens won't lay as they should. A hen that is so wild that she will fly off the nest or roost whenever anyone enters the poultry house cannot be a good layer. She is in a continual nervous state for fear someone will come within sight of her and hasn't time to think of laying eggs.

But there is another disadvantage beside the one that directly affects your pocketbook in having "wild" fowls. It isn't conducive to good temper to have your fowls start cackling and crowing every time you happen to get near them, nor is it very convenient when you have to chase a long-legged cockerel all over the place every time wife wants a chicken for dinner. Viewed from any angle the tame hen is by far the more desirable. It isn't hard to tame chickens. On the contrary, it is the easiest thing imaginable. It is simply a matter of being friendly whenever you are around the fowls, instead of throwing stones at them every time they get near you. But the fowls are by far the easiest to tame when young. Start making friends with your chicks this summer and your next hens will be tame ones.

RHODE ISLAND RED IS IDEAL

Hens Are Extra Good Mothers, Protecting Young as Few Fowls Do—Eggs Are in Demand.

I consider the Rhode Island Red as the farmer's ideal fowl, says a writer in Agriculturist. Its heavy covering of feathers helps to keep it warm so its food can be utilized more favorably for egg production. Its plump yellow body is as free as that of a white fowl from disfiguring dark pin feathers, always a disadvantage in marketing. The hens are extra good mothers, protecting their young as but few fowls do. The chickens grow fast and get to laying as soon as any other of the American breeds. They lay beautiful large brown eggs.

I have shipped eggs to a small city for the past two years and the grocery man says they sell better than any eggs he handles. I have raised poultry for 25 years and have kept Leghorns, Brahmas, Cochins, White Wyandottes, White Plymouth Rock fowls and crosses of these breeds and most of the time have had the Barred Plymouth Rock. It has always been a stand-by and still is a favorite. From my two pens of two-year-old Barred Plymouth Rock fowls during the past winter, I had an average of half as many eggs as hens, but the Rhode Island Red fowls did better than that.

Assist the Little Chicks.

This hot weather, if the chicks hatching in the incubator are among the last coming out and have already pipped and partly broken the shell about their head, you had better help them farther out at this point, as a chick dies quickly at this stage of hatching. To shut up the incubator and leave it another hour may mean a chick that is lifeless and past coming out next time you look.

Success and Failure.

Some people fail with chickens because they are easily discouraged. Others succeed for the simple reason that they keep hard at work, cleaning up, fighting vermin, matching as much as possible. One must be persevering to succeed with poultry.

TO HOLD SPECIAL ELECTION

Monday, Sept. 27, Conception Will Vote on Proposition for Electric Lighting System.

A special election has been called for Monday, September 27, at Conception Junction to vote upon a proposition to grant a twenty-year franchise for a street lighting contract, the contract to be for a term of ten years.

The contract is proposed by W. T. Costello, who will build the plant, put it in operation and give a part-day service for the first year, increasing to a full service after that time.

A proposal was also made by the Electric Light and Power Company to furnish lights for the town which would start with a full service from the time of its installation and would also furnish lights for the farmers along the intervening route between the two towns. This proposition met with much favor.

The subject of electric lights has been before the town board and the people of Conception for the past six months and it is probable the matter will be pushed to a decision within a few weeks.

COURTS GIRL; SLIPS; CLOTHES ALL A MUSS.

It is a known fact that Harold Selcman, city water clerk, is well enamored with a Burlington Junction girl, and the proof of this was brought out rather forcibly and painfully to him last night.

All intent at gazing into the love-lit eyes of the fair one, he completely forgot that the Wabash doesn't run midnight trains through Burlington Junction. And not until No. 14 whistled for the Junction station last night was he aware of the time.

Hastily donning his hat he fled for the depot several blocks distant. Just as Charley Chaplin would have it, there was a nasty mud hole on the route, and just as Charley likes it, Selcman struck it a glancing blow—that is with the "English" on the reverse side of his person. A torn trouser leg and a bruised knee added to the forlorn look of the wooer.

But for another Maryville young man being on the train all Maryville would have been in ignorance of the fate of the enamored young man.
